HE'S A SCOUT

(B. J. R. Moffet.) His step is brisk and snappy, His face is bright and happy, The motto in his mind is "Be Prepared." He does a Good Turn Daily, And he does it smiling gaily, And by every one who knows him 'tis declared

That he's manly, keen and clean,

And it's plainly to be seen That he's confident and knows what he's about. And if this should need explaining, It's because he's now in training

"February 7th, 1922. "To the Boy Scouts of America:

"Sincere congratulations to the Boy Scouts of America on their twelfth anniversary, February the 8th. "This anniversary of an organization whose ideal is peace and friendship, quite strikingly coincides with the birth of a new hope for world peace and friendship, at the recent conference of the nations here in Washington. The responsibilities dis-closed by that conference must be met by the men who come after us, and I look with growing confidence to that steadily increasing number of boys 45 who are effectively trained to 'do their duty to God and their Country' and 'to help other people at all times, as are the Boy Scouts of America and Scouts throughout the world. "(Signed) WARREN G. HARDING."

autoist has stopped his machine to invite these youngsters to a ride only to hear "no thank you sir, I am on my 14 mile hike." This sounds simple 14 mile hike," This sounds simple enough in its self, just a 14 mile hike. But this is not all there is to it. The scout or scouts, make the fourteen mile hike and then must write a complete account of his trip describing the kinds of roads he passed ever, the species of trees, plants and growth along his trail. Buildings, animals, birds, etc., seen on his trip. In fact it is not only a test of endurance but a splendid opportunity to test his observing powers and also that of mem-ory and individuality. Then he must also point out north without the help of a compass.

This is only one of twenty-six tests he must pass before he can become a first class scout.

Many more of the scouts are at work on their map making tests, so do not think the enemy has invaded our beautiful island if you see these youngsters walking thru your proper-ty making notes of the "lay of the land." Some of the maps already handed into headquarters are well worth looking over, especially when you realize that these youngsters have had no instruction in map mak ing. They are given a certain dis trict to cover and are told they must use a certain number of conventional map signs, draw it to a scale, get the north point properly located and hand in the result to headquarters of fice for examination.

In first aid these youngsters are wonders. Try them out. If you run across a second class scout ask him what he would do if he came across a person who had fainted, or had an arm broken, an artery severed, badly burned or scalded, suffering from shock, fracture simple or compound, bruised, sprained ankle etc., Ask how he would arrange to carry a patient by himself or the help

They were all ludricious and humorous charac ters who showed up including Pop, although he was the same commis sioner with the same welcome to all smile on his face.

Tsukusato opened the program by trying to hit a paper bag filled with nuts suspended just above his head. According to the rules each scout was to have three chances to hit the bag after he had been blindfolded then spun around three times. Tsukusato was evidently somewhat dazed for he stead of hitting the bag landed a blow on some ones head.
